End of Financial Year Sale!

By Roger Keays, 6 May 2007

With tax time just around the corner, now is the time to spend up on tax-deductables for your business. To catch an even better opportunity for you, we at Sunburnt Web Services have gone and slashed our prices by 20% on any work up to 30 June 2007!

That's right. We're offering you a massive 20% off all our software and services, including new websites, development, design, editing and training.

You could be the proud owner of a brand new website for just $1,040, or build a shopping store and become an online merchant for only $720. Add a blog to your site for next to nothing, or get additional training at bargain prices.

Take advantage of this great offer today!

- Read more about our products and services
- View our portfolio of completed websites
- Take a look at our already great-value prices

But hurry! Offer ends 30 June 2007.
