Home » Help » What Is Domain Authority?

What Is Domain Authority?

23 August 2012

Domain Authority is a score which measures a domain's authority on a logarithmic scale from 0 to 100. A score means the domain is likely to be dominant in search results. This metric is calculated and published by SEO Company called SEOMoz.

At Sunburnt we prefer Blekko Rank which uses a linear scale that makes it easier to interpret.